Dear guests, we are glad to be open again. We are looking forward to beautiful summer with you. We start the season with a reduced menu, that includes some of our favourite dishes, until we can operate at full capacity again. We recommend 2 dishes per person.

Please keep the distance of 1,5m to other guests and please cover your mouth and nose when not seated. Thank you very much.

Drinks

Cocktails

As with our food, our cocktails are all about Peru and especially Pisco - the Peruvian grape spirit. You like Moscow Mules? Try our Chilcano. Fancy a Manhattan? Taste his Peruvian brother El Capitan.

Pisco Sour – a Peruvian classic, fresh and perfect at any time – Quebranta Pisco, lime, egg white, sugar and chuncho bitters 9,00

Pisco Punch – fruity and sparkly – Italia Pisco, Lillet Rouge, pineapple, lime and Sekt 8,50

El Capitan – flavourful and short - Quebranta Pisco, Cocchi Vermouth and Angostura bitters 9,00

Chilcano - a Limenean highball, refreshing and zingy - Pisco Quebranta, ginger ale, lime, angostura 7,50

Pisco Lemonade - simple and refreshing – Pisco Quebranta, lime juice, sugar, angostura and soda water 7,00

Chicha COLADA – our version of a Colada, not heavy and not too sweet - blend of rums, Michelberger coconut water, chocolate bitters and pineapple 9,50

El Xaman – an homage to the mystical beings of the jungle, invigorating and tangy – homebrewed purple corn lemonade, Pisco Italia, lime, Orinoco and Riesling bitters 9,50

Wine

Together with our local wine supplier, we choose a small selection of German wines to match our dishes. We appreciate that there are great wines in South America, but German wines pair great with Peruvian food and have less carbon footprint.
